DETAILED ACTION

Claims 14-20 have been examined.

Response to Amendment

The Amendment filed 12/18/09 on is sufficient to overcome the prior rejection.

However, a new rejection has been made.

Election/Restrictions

On 12/18/09 Applicant elected Group III, claims 14-20. See Applicant Remarks dated 12/18/09.

Interview Summary

On 5/17/10, Examiner spoke with Frank Nicholas. Because Applicant elected a new claim set, claims 14-20, on 12/18/09, the Final Action dated 2/22/10 has been vacated and this current action has been resent as a Non-Final on 5/18/10. The current action examines claims 14-20.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 14, and its dependent claims, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Based on Supreme Court precedent a method claim must (1) be tied to a particular machine or apparatus (see at least Diamond v. Diehr, 450 U.S. 175, 184 (1981); Parker v. Flook, 437 U.S. 584, 588 n.9 (1978); Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 70 (1972); Cochrane v. Deener, 94 U.S. 780, 787-88 (1876)) or (2) transform underlying subject matter (such as an article or materials) to a different state or thing (see at least Gottschalk v. Benson, 409 U.S. 63, 71 (1972)). A method claim that fails to meet one of the above requirements is not in compliance with the statutory requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101 for patent eligible subject matter. To correct this issue, the independent claim could be amended such that at least one significant feature (not just data gathering or outputting) of the body of the claims actively uses a technological apparatus (computer, server, processor, etc).

Priority

The later-filed application must be an application for a patent for an invention which is also disclosed in the prior application (the parent or original nonprovisional application or provisional application). The disclosure of the invention in the parent application and in the later-filed application must be sufficient to comply with the requirements of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112. See Transco Products, Inc. v. Performance Contracting, Inc., 38 F.3d 551, 32 USPQ2d 1077 (Fed. Cir. 1994).

The disclosure of the prior-filed application, Application No. 10/172,492, fails to provide adequate support or enablement in the manner provided by the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112 for one or more claims of this application. Parent CIP Application 10/172,492 does not disclose any Universal Resource Identifier (URI) or “invitation” as stated in the independent claim. Also, dependent claims 20 “ad wrapper” is not in 10/172,492. Hence, the priority date for the present application does Not benefit from 10/172,492.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 15 and 17 recites the limitation "the price" in "the profile". However, there is no price or profile in parent claim 14. Hence, there is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 14, 15, 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gupta (6487538).

Claim 14. Gupta discloses a method of operating an online target advertising system, the method comprising:

Providing a page specific invitation to advertise link on a web page associated with its identifying universal resource identifier (URI);

Receiving a request to advertise via the link at an ad server;

Displaying an advertisement in an advertisement space on successive web pages having the identified URI, based on the request (11:15-25; 13:10-45; 14:20-35; Fig. 5).

Claim 15. Gupta discloses the method of claim 14 wherein the price to occupy the advertisement space is determined in an ongoing auction (13:10-45).

Claim 19. Gupta discloses the method of claim 14 wherein the ad server is a right of first refusal ad server (Fig. 5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 16-18, 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gupta (6487538) in view of Gerace (5,848,396).

Claims 16-18: Gupta does not explicitly disclose, “16. The method of claim 14 further comprising collecting profile information based on the request to advertise. 17. The method of claim 14 wherein the profile information includes the identifying URI and the scanned contents of the web page having the identified URI.

18. The method of claim 14 further comprising providing a suggested URI based on the profile information” .

However, Gerace discloses profiling requests to advertise and advertisers (17:50-67; 11”64-12:6) and tracking the page and content where the ad came from (18:50-19:5; 6:55-7:25) and suggesting a URI (19:25-31). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to add Gerace’s tracking ad requests to Gupta’s advertiser with ad requests and better targeting. One would have been motivated to do this in order to better improve ad targeting.

Claim 20. Gupta does not explicitly disclose wherein the advertisement displayed is selected from a targeted ad wrapper. Applicant's Specification describes targeted ad wrapper at ([174]). Gerace discloses ads as series, campaigns, sets, or packages (12:20-55). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to add Gerace's ad packages to Gupta's numerous ads . One would have been motivated to do this in order to better organize ad campaigns.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Applicant has presented new claims 14-20 for examination. Please see the prior art rejection above.

Conclusion

The following prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:

a) Bell 20040125140 discloses to advertise link on a web page associated with its identifying universal resource identifier (URI) (Figs. 11a, 11b; [88]);

Receiving a request to advertise via the link at an ad server;

Displaying an advertisement in an advertisement space on successive web pages having the identified URI, based on the request (Fig. 11b, item 1112).

b) Slaughter 7370091 discloses relevant features for filling empty ad slots.
